

Berlin Lullaby

*Who's your friend but I
Who loves your night like me
Who dies for your destiny
But me, I would always do
Who won't, his love is never true*

Berlin, garden square

*You are ev'rywhere
Your face is just to see
For those, who like love like me
I love you a million times
Three times of your love, that's what I'm*

Berlin, golden time

*Spring, my luck, you're mine
Sing me your song, there ain't
No place, where I'd more belong
But to you, I am your friend
My love for you ain't got no end*
